

These processes would usually reflect on what went well / what could be improved at the end of each meeting

Periodically survey your board / trustee and senior team for their views on